

WE WERE JUBILANT AS WE FILLED THE JAIL CELLS.

we shall all be free

we shall all be free

we shall all be free someday

SURROUNDED BY SO MANY OF OUR FRIENDS, WE FELT LIKE PRISONERS IN A HOLY WAR.

we are not alone

BACK AT THE LUNCH COUNTERS, POLICE COULD HARDLY KEEP UP WITH THE WAVES OF STUDENTS QUICKLY FILLING THE EMPTY SEATS. NO SOONER WOULD ONE GROUP BE ARRESTED THAN ANOTHER WOULD TAKE ITS PLACE.

we are not alone

82 OF US WENT TO JAIL THAT DAY.

we are not alone

we are not alone someday

THE POLICE WANTED NOTHING MORE THAN TO BE RID OF US, SO THEY REDUCED THE BAIL FROM $100 TO $5 APIECE.

BUT IT DIDN'T MATTER.

WE WEREN'T ABOUT TO COOPERATE IN ANY WAY WITH THE SYSTEM ALLOWING THE VERY DISCRIMINATION WE WERE PROTESTING.

IT DIDN'T TAKE NASHVILLE'S POWERS-THAT-BE LONG TO REALIZE IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO FORCE US TO PAY OUR WAY OUT.

AROUND 11:00 p.m., WE WERE ALL RELEASED.
